Salvadoran Red Cross with support from the U.S. Embassy brought aid to 80 families in Aguilares municipality. The aid was channeled through the Social Development Foundation (FUndeso, in Spanish) for the families affected by the strong rains. Given the discouraging scenario of heavy rains left by Tropical Storm Amanda in the neighborhoods of La Florida I, II and Bella Vista in the municipality of Aguilares, the local Red Cross, supported by the headquarters, brought humanitarian aid.

Humanitarian Project

In La Guajira, through the Humanitarian Project for Migration in Colombia, 114 people benefited from services of: general medicine, nursing, dentistry, promotional and disease prevention activities, actions to restore family links and information on personal care.

Psychosocial support sessions

The Regional Office for the Americas and the Caribbean is presenting virtual sessions aimed at Psychosocial Support in which, through the intervention of psychologists and medical specialists, they have addressed different topics and provided professional advices to the participants. The sessions reach a huge number of people and are listened in dozens of countries in the Region, and are presented live, in Spanish and English through the AmCross Regional Office’s YouTube channel and through the Red Cross Radio. The broadcast can be listened in the Youtube channel, Red Cross Radio App or Spotify.
Psychological First Aid Workshop in El Salvador

Residents of the communities of Embarcadero, Barra de Santiago and El Pantano, in the lower Jujutla, Laguna Verde and Quezalapa Centro, Apaneca, and Bella Vista 2, Tacuba area of El Salvador, participate in a workshop on psychological first aid carried out by the Latin American Risk Reduction Activities Project (LARRA) with the support of the American Red Cross, with the aim of community empowerment and preparedness in disaster risk reduction.

Humanitarian Project

Within the framework of the Humanitarian Project for Migration in Colombia, with the support of the American Red Cross, first aid services and the provision of food and hydration at the Arauca International Bridge are being provided to Venezuelan migrants returning to their country.

Mexico Recovery Program

The Mexican Red Cross and American Red Cross Community Earthquake Resilience Program has continued its work with communities with COVID-19 prevention messages. Providing podcast and infographics to the community leaders about risk mitigation on COVID-19. Mexican Red Cross Volunteers in Yucatan, were doing Damage and Need Assessments (DANA), product of the storm that affected the area.

Webinar about Mental Health in Las Americas

The Regional Director of the Delegation for the Americas and the Caribbean, Roberto Brito, participated as a keynote speaker in the IFRC Webinar "Developing a Culture of Mental Health and Psychosocial Support in the Americas after Covid-19". The webinar was very interactive and involved more than 160 people connected, who asked questions and were answered by the participating experts.

Stigma discussion

The team from the American Red Cross Regional Office participated in a discussion on stigma, discrimination, racism and equal rights, led by Breanna Rodriguez, Program Officer for LAC.